

CSR FRAMEWORK

Our CSR philosophy—“Do Good to Do Well and Do Well to Do Good”—guides our commitment to responsible growth and meaningful social impact. We strive to integrate ethical, transparent, and sustainable practices into our business while contributing to the larger needs of society.

At CLI, CSR has effectively evolved from being engaged in passive philanthropy to corporate community investments, which takes the form of a social partnership initiative creating value for stakeholders.

A chronological record of our community initiatives and national contributions over past financial years:

For FY 24-25

During the financial year 2024–25, CLI contributed towards promoting access to education by providing notebooks and essential stationery items to support the learning and educational needs of students.

In addition, CLI continued to make appropriate contributions to the Prime Minister’s National Relief Fund as part of its Corporate Social Responsibility initiatives. This contribution is intended to support the Government of India in addressing specified areas of needs.

For FY 23-24

During the financial year 2023–24, CLI supported underprivileged children in their educational journey by providing notebooks and essential stationery items to meet their learning needs

In addition, CLI continued to make appropriate contributions to the Prime Minister’s National Relief Fund as part of its Corporate Social Responsibility initiatives. This contribution is intended to support the Government of India in addressing specified areas of needs.

For FY 22-23

During the financial year 2022–23, CLI supported the education of underprivileged children by providing notebooks and essential stationery items, thereby contributing to their learning and educational development.

In addition, CLI continued to make appropriate contributions to the Prime Minister’s National Relief Fund as part of its Corporate Social Responsibility initiatives. This contribution is intended to support the Government of India in addressing specified areas of needs.

For FY 21-22

During the financial year 2021-22, CLI supported the education of underprivileged children, by providing notebooks and essential stationery items through a Trust to support the learning of students.

In addition, CLI continued to make appropriate contributions to the Prime Minister's National Relief Fund as part of its Corporate Social Responsibility initiatives. This contribution is intended to support the Government of India in addressing specified areas of needs.

For FY 20-21

During the Financial year 2020-21, the Company continued to make appropriate contributions to the Prime Minister's National Relief Fund as part of its Corporate Social Responsibility initiatives. This contribution is intended to support the Government of India in addressing specified areas of needs.

Photograph showcasing initiatives undertaken over the years

